JAPANESE SUCCESS REPORTED TODAY

Two Russian Torpedo Boats
Reported Captured.

The Losses In a Number of Engagements Were Very Small.

NO HEAVY FIGHTING YET

Rome, Sept. 23.—A telegram to the Tribuna asserts that the Japanese headquarters have been transferred from Liao Yang to Kental. General Kuroki, according to the telegram is gradually drawing his forces near Mukden, and has reached a point twenty-five miles east of the city.

RUSSIANS PREPARING.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 23.—All reports show that the Japanese are slowly advancing towards Mukden for a battle
which will assuredly come within a short time. Meantime the authorities are exerting every effort to rush reinforcements to Gen. Kuropatkin, so when the clash comes it will find him even in better condition to meet it than he was at Liao
Yang, and he is buoyed up with the hope of speedy and heavy reinforcements.

GOOD PRICE FOR COAL.

Liverpool, Sept. 23.—Russian agents are offering thirty shillings a ton for coal for the far east and fifteen shillings
a ton added to thirty if the blockade is successfully run, the coal to be delivered at Port Arthur.

JAPS CARRIED DAILING PASS.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 23.—A dispatch received here states that the Japanese carried Dailing Pass by assault, after a devastating fire. The Russians lost two hundred and eighty men.

LOSSES WERE SLIGHT.

Tokio, Sept. 23.—The war department
gives out a dispatch stating that fights
have taken place at Tieling and Nanlangku, sixty miles northwest of Liao Yang. The Russians were driven northward, leaving nineteen dead behind.
The Japanese losses are slight.

JAPS TAKE AGGRESSIVE.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 23.—Gen. Kuropatkin
reports that the Japanese have assumed an offensive attitude and advanced from Baniapuzze to Finsciaulin,
twenty miles from Mukden.

TORPEDO BOAT CAPTURED.

Cherof, Sept. 23.—It is rumored that torpedo destroyers, forming a part of the Russian Vladivostok fleet, were captured by a Japanese transport.

TWO JAPANESE SUCCESSES.

Tokio, Sept. 23.—A dispatch received at official quarters today reports two Japanese successes near Mukden.

ANARCHIST ATTEMPTS

CHIEF OF POLICE.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 23.—In Odessa,
while Chief of Police Neidgardt, in company with Prince Obolensky, was inspecting some new government buildings
in the Boulevard Nicholas, near the Pushkin monument, a young man, wearing a blue blouse, fired a revolver from a distance of six paces at Neidgardt.
The bullet did not strike the chief of police, and the would-be assassin was about to fire again when he was seized by Prince Obolensky. The man's weapon fell to the ground, and a desperate struggle ensued, in the course of which
M. Neidgardt was wounded in the hand with a dagger. The assailant was secured and placed in custody. He refused to give his name or any account of himself.

SEND BY PHONE.

Major Hersey, of the Louisville
weather bureau, has arranged to send the weather report out from Louisville
by telephone, as is done out of Paducah by Observer Bornemann. As soon as the forecast is received here from Washington by Observer Bornemann,
it is given to the telephone companies,
which phone it all over this section.

While women are allowed to vote in Australia no disposition is shown to elect them as legislators. The most popular woman candidate at the last election received only 30,000 votes, as against the 80,000 of the man lowest on the list of competitors.

NINE CHILDREN WERE SUFFOCATED

Met a Horrible Fate Near Cincinnati, O.

Floor of an Outhouse at School
Collapses—Engineer Killed In Wreck.

10-YEAR-OLD BOY SUICIDES

Cincinnati, September 23.—Nine children lost their lives today by the caving in of the floors of an outhouse
at Pleasant Ridge school house, near Cincinnati. About thirty girls were in the building when the floor collapsed, and twenty fell into the vault.
Nine suffered an awful death from suffocation, while eleven were rescued
by teachers and others with great difficulty. Some of them are in a serious condition. The screams of the children almost unmanned the rescuers, but they did not cease their labors until all were accounted for.

ENGINEER KILLED.

Sedalia, Mo., September 23.—The
"Katy Flyer" ran into an open switch
this morning and struck a freight train. Engineer Shane was killed, and the fireman injured. Five passenger coaches were derailed but only one passenger was seriously hurt.

BOY SHOTS HIS HEAD OFF.

Robinson, Ill., September 23.—Tim Barrack, aged 10, committed suicide
because his mother refused to take him with her to pick grapes in a nearby pasture. He used a shot gun, pulling the trigger with a string attached to his toe. His head was frightfully mangled.

ON HIMSELF

MARYLAND PHYSICIAN PER-FORMS AN OPERATION FOR BLOOD POISON.

Cumberland, Md., September 23.— Dr. O. H. Fisher, in charge of the main hospital at Little Orleans on the Wabash connecting link now building,
performed the unusual feat of operating upon himself for blood poisoning.
For nearly a week he has been suffering a violent infection of the left foot
and it became alarming. He immediately arranged to go to Washington
for surgical attendance, but was prevented by an accident to one of the Wabash men.

Seeing that delay was becoming dangerous and that he was in a fair way to lose his foot and perhaps his life, the infection extending rapidly
as far as the knee, he operated upon himself with the assistance of his hospital nurses in the operating room provided for the patients of the Wabash construction work, cutting from the instep to the toes, down to the tendons and bone without an anesthetic, scraping and gouging
among the diseased tissues, suffering agonies for nearly a half hour of this work, and was exhausted at the close.
By the promptness and thoroughness of his self-operating he is in a fair way to save not only his life, but his leg and foot.

A LIVE BIRD SHOOT.

The Paducah Gun Club has over 400
live pigeons which were left over from the tournament last week, and Monday will give a big live bird shoot open to all. The members of the club and any others desiring to shoot may do so, the fee being 10 cents per bird.
There will likely be a large number of marksmen on hand to participate in the shoot.

Messrs. Rodney C. Davis and Rankin Kirkland have returned from the world's fair, and Mr. Davis said that he found out nothing on earth can beat Kentucky.
The best treatment received at the fair,
he says, is at the Kentucky building,
and the next is at the Connecticut building.

HUNTER SAYS ROBBERY.

Somerset, Ky., Sept. 23.—Dr. Hunter
says he was disgracefully robbed yesterday, but that he will make no contest.

THE VETERANS ALL HAD A FINE TIME

There Was an Abundance of Good Things for Them.

Colonel Bennett H. Young Gave
Credit to the Western Kentucky Troops For Their Work.

PADUCAH VETERANS RETURN

Messrs. B. H. Scott and J. V. Greif returned this morning from Earlinton, Ky., where they attended the Confederate reunion. They report a most delightful time, although there was a small attendance. There was abundance of good things to eat and good quarters,
and the veterans enjoyed the two days'
reunion very much.

The address of welcome was delivered
by City Councilman John B. Atkinson, and responded to by John W. Lockett, of Henderson.

After a barbecued dinner, Senator Mc-Creary and Senator Blackburn addressed
an assemblage of perhaps a thousand veterans and visitors, and the veterans were then assigned to quarters in Earlington homes, which were thrown open
almost without exception.

The evening programme at the Temple
Theater brought out a crowd beyond the utmost capacity of the house. The feature of the evening was the speech of Col. Bennett H. Young, which created much enthusiasm.

L. D. Hockersmith, of Madisonville, the ranking colonel, was commander of the brigade in the absence of J. B. Briggs who was detained in New York on business. Amplus Owen, of Evansville, was field marshal.

Mr. Greif, stated this morning that
Col. Young, in his address, Wednesday night, paid a high tribute to the troops from Southwestern Kentucky for their work under Gen. Forrest at Bryce's Cross Roads, Miss., which resulted in Gen. Forrest being promoted from a major-general
to a lieutenant-general.

It was then that less than 3,000 Kentuckians fought 12,000 of the enemy and whipped them, killing and wounding
more Union men than the Confederates
actually had, and capturing more Union prisoners than the Kentuckians actually had men in the battle. In addition they captured 800 head of horses, 200 wagons
and ambulances, and many stores and arms.

"I tell about this reference in Col.
Young's speech to the troops from Western Kentucky," declared Mr. J. V. Greif
today, "because it is the first time in all my life that I ever heard the Kentucky
troops given the credit that was due them."

The second day was devoted largely to children's exercises. The little folk sang southern airs, made addresses, gave recitations, and in many other ways delighted the hearts of the grizzled old veterans.

The next reunion will be held wherever the brigade is invited. It was held in Paducah last year.

KENTUCKY WOMAN

BRINGS SUIT IN NEW YORK FOR FORTUNE IN BONDS.

New York, Sept. 23.—Mary Newcomb widow of Eleazer Burbank Newcomb, of Henderson, Ky., began suit in the supreme court today to recover $100,000 in bonds, which she alleges were conveyed to her by Ambrose Burbank, her husband's uncle, who died last January.
The defendants named are Caleb A. Burbank and G. H. Southard, as executors.

MANY CATERPILLARS.

Evansville Is Suffering From a Veritable Plague.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 23.—Evansville
is suffering from a caterpillar plague.
Trees are literally alive with the worms
and many have been almost entirely denuded of their foliage. Sycamore trees seem to suffer worst from the caterpil-lars, but no kind of tree is exempt from their attacks. The sycamores, wherever the aer found, have been riddled by the pests and present only bare branches in most places. Other kinds have suffered almost as badly in many places. People residing in the upper parts of the city
have resorted to various features
to endeavor to get rid of the worms,
but it has all been to no avail.

PADUCAH DISTRICT HANDLES 800 CARS

Yesterday a Total of 878 Went Through Here.

Assistant General Manager Rawn Arrived This Morning on Business.

A CONFERENCE WAS HELD

Mr. I. G. Rawn, assistant general manager of the Illinois Central railroad, arrived here this morning via Cairo and met in conference with Mr. H. McCourt, assistant general manager of southern
lines, regarding the increasing business
in the Paducah district.

Mr. Rawn and Mr. McCourt exhibit much interest in the management of the Paducah district. During the past week
the Illinois Central has handled over the Paducah district an enormous amount of business. Yesterday a total of 878
cars were operated over this district,
which extends from Paducah to Central City. Of this amount of business 386
loaded cars and 241 empties were handled.
Paducah has been a great shipping point of the road for the past few years and the attention of the officials has been called to this place.

The installation of the block system
and the other improvements, which have been started on the Louisville division,
make it evident that the Louisville division is an important division on the Illinois Central.

Messrs. Rawn and McCourt will remain here a short time only but while in the city held a conference with local and division officials regarding handling business over the Paducah district, and instructed local officials to exercise all
care in handling business in the district.
The Illinois Central is in the throes of a great rush and the officials are using every means to remedy any possible defect on all divisions of the road in handling freight.

NARROW ESCAPE FOR SEVERAL BIG MEN

Archbishop Canterbury and Pierpont Morgan.

The Officers and Crew of the General
Slocum are Held Responsible For Big Disaster.

10,000 ODD FELLOWS MARCH

East Brookfield, Mass., September
23.—A special train bearing Archbishop Canterbury and party ran into an engine here this morning. The archbishop, J. Pierpont Morgan, and several others of the party were slightly shaken up, but suffered no serious injury.

BOAT OFFICERS RESPONSIBLE.

New York, September 23.—The board of steamboat inspectors handed down a report today on the General Slocum disaster. The board finds the officers and crew of the steamboat responsible for the catastrophe in which 959 people lost their lives. The board revoked the license of the captain,
pilot and chief engineer.

ABANDONED THE TRIP.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Joseph Leiter,
mother and sister, arrived today from Denver after a record-breaking trip.
They received a cablegram here announcing that Lady Curzon was somewhat improved and decided to abandon the present their journey to England.

ELEVEN THOUSAND IN LINE.

San Francisco, September 23.—The grand parade of the Odd Fellows occurred today, and eleven thousand were in line. In the afternoon the session of the sovereign lodge was held.

A man's actions seldom tally with his good intentions.

FORTY WORKMEN HURLED INTO RIVER

Three Were Instantly Killed
and Many Hurt.

A Scaffolding Gave Way—Great
Damage Done to Grape Crop
In California.

LADY CURZON IS NO BETTER

Sijon Springs, Ark., Sept. 23.—A special to the Daily Republican from Grove, I. T., says:

A fatal accident occurred three miles west of here in which three men were killed outright, three fatally and four severely injured by the falling of scaffold
work on a bridge.

The dead are: Henry Rucker, Thomas
Browning, Ray Moore. Fatally injured:
Rufus Blevins, internal injuries; Lee Carry, back broken and other injuries. Seriously injured: Henry Glenn, E. P. Jackson, James Perrin.

J. J. Smith, foreman of the steel works
here, had his leg broken and is badly cut.

Forty men working on scaffolding surrounding an iron wagon bridge in the course of construction across Grand river
were suddenly precipitated into the river below, a distance of over fifty feet, by the breaking of the scaffold work.

Most of the workmen lived at Grove.
In addition to those named above sixteen
men were more or less injured, but none
seriously hurt.

DAMAGE TO GRAPE CROP.

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—Storms of great severity have swept the northern section of the state, and the rainfall is unusually heavy, doing great damage to the grape crop, only half of which has been harvested.

LADY CURZON ILL.

London, Sept. 23.—At noon Lady Curzon was still in a critical condition. Her physicians are in constant attendance.

SEVENTY CENTS

WAS ALL THE TREASURER OF MIS-SISSIPPI HAD IN STATE VAULT.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 23.—When State Treasurer Miller closed the big heavy steel doors to the $75,000 vault of the state treasury, Wednesday, he locked up
two quarters, one dime and two nickles.
This afternoon several large warrants
were turned down because the cashier
did not have the money for settlement.
The present financial condition of the treasury is due to the failure of N. W.
Harris & Co., who bid in the state's $300,000 bonds, to make prompt settlement. The officials have been expecting this bond money, but it has not been received. Even the printed bonds have not yet been received from the printers.

TOM WATSON

POPULIST CANDIDATE HOT IN THE COLLAR.

Houston, Tex., Sept. 22.—Hon. Tom
Watson of Georgia, who is to speak here
tomorrow, arrived unexpectedly tonight,
and the committee failed to meet him.
At the station Mr. Watson entered a hack to drive to the hotel and was requested by the driver to admit another passenger. The driver thereupon presented a negro woman as his seat mate, whereupon Mr. Watson left the hack and struck the negro a heavy blow.

The local committee will take the matter up tomorrow. Mr. Watson is indignant.

JOE JEFFERSON ILL.

Veteran Actor Cancels All Engagements
For the Season.

New York, Sept. 23.—Preparations
for the autumn tour of the veteran actor, Joseph Jefferson, have been abandoned, and all engagements for the season cancelled, according to the Herald.
Recently he was attacked by indigestion, at Buzzard's Bay, and because of his advanced age some alarm was felt.
He soon recovered, but after a consultation with his physicians has decided to abandon plans for the season and to remain at his summer home, going later to Florida.

GEN KUROKE IS A POLISH JAPANESE

Relative Tells the Truth About His Case.

Doughty Japanese's Father Had a Genuine Russian Name—Kurovski.

IT IS AN INTERESTING CASE

Paris, Sept. 23.—Is Gen. Kuroki the Nemesis who now takes revenge on Russia for the wrongs of Poland? It really seems so, as has been proven beyond doubt that the famous Japanese general is of Polish descent. The proof comes from his own nephew, M. Poliakov, a resident of Roston-on-Don.

In a signed letter to the Russian paper, Priazovskiy Krai, he says: "When some time ago a Japanese student, Po-sake Ozuma, made the statement that Gen. Kuroki comes from a Polish family he found no belief."

"I am, however, in a position to prove the truth of this remarkable statement."
"After the Polish insurrection in 1836
the magnate Kurovski was forced to flee
from Russia with his younger brother.
On his flight he fell in with a tribe of Don Cossacks and attracted by the freedom of their existence, he secretly left his brother and followed his new friends
to Novotcherkassk."

"Upon finding out his identity, however, the Cossacks were aghast and told their hetman of the presence among them of the young Kurovski."

"The hetman immediately reported it directly to Czar Nicholas I, who, however, simply ordered the Pole to change
his name to Poliakov and to take permanent residence at Rostov and not only pardoned him, but gave him considerable
real estate in that city, which is now owned by myself and my brothers."

"The other Kurovski fled to Japan, and his brother, who had been pardoned, kept up a regular correspondence with him."

"When Poliakov died he left two sons, Michael (myself) and Benedict, and we have continued this correspondence, and I have in my possession several letters from Gen. Kuroki, who has also often sent him Japanese keepsakes to my daughters."

IN LOUISVILLE

attorney and brother of Mrs. Lee Schwab, of Paducah, reached the city
last night. Mr. Lee Schwab and

FROM CAIRO

They Make More Absurd Claims
About Evansville Players.

They Want to Know If Gus Bonno
Was Ever Reinstated.

Mr. John S. Ray, manager of the local baseball club, left last night for Vincennes, Ind., to make that city his permanent residence.

During the past season Ray managed the Paducah team and is a man well up in baseball matters.

Harry Lloyd, better known as "Chief" Lloyd, will manage the local team next year, the contract having been closed this week. Lloyd was instrumental in securing several of the team's star players the past season and guarantees that he will have a bunch of pennant winners next season.

Paducah filed protests against Cairo playing Miner and Cross, alleging that they had been disqualified, being under suspension by President Bement of the Central League. As the players participated in four games, two of which were won and two lost by Cairo, the total loss of all four games will not change the result in the race as far as the championship is concerned. The Cairo management hire the men in good faith, having been informed that the two men had been reinstated in the good graces of President Bement of the Central League. At all events, admitting they had been suspended, the dropping by the wayside of the Evansville club during the season released the players from Central League reservation or suspension under the National agreement.—Cairo Bulletin.

While upon the subject of suspended players, it appears to us that we read a bulletin issued by Secretary Farrell upon which appeared as suspended by Columbus, one Gus Bonno. And we have not heard or seen where the suspension was raised. It would not be a bad idea if the local association would immediately make inquiries of the secretary in regard to the matter and if the suspension is still in force Paducah could be given a dose of its own tobacco.—Cairo Bulletin.

A hot game of ball is promised for Paducah Sunday. Eddie Powers has organized a club at Cairo from K. I. T. and Southern League players, and will play a Paducah club composed of the remaining professional players in the city. Twenty-five cents will be charged but ladies will be admitted for fifteen cents. Hedges will probably pitch for Paducah.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE

CLARKSVILLE FANS TALKING
OF MAKING A CHANGE.

A Clarksville dispatch indicates that the club there may be in the Southern League next season. It says: Much enthusiasm is being manifested among the local fans in 1905 baseball, resulting from the fact that many players of the 1904 team have been retained for next season. Several subscribers to the guarantee fund have offered to double their subscriptions. It is not unlikely that Clarksville may be in the Southern League next season with a fast team."

SCHOOL NEWS

THE NEW PAPER WILL BE A GREAT SUCCESS.

The circulation manager of the high school paper to be published at an early date has received many subscriptions and thinks that the organ will be a success. Pupils in the school are taking a lively interest in the paper and the paper will have a tendency to promote progress and harmony in the schools.

Superintendent Leib has been busy the last few days entering pupils into the schools and states that the enrollment of the city schools will exceed the enrollment of last year by several hundred.

AUSTIN BETTER

PATROL DRIVER MAY BE BROUGHT HOME BY CITY
JAILER EVITTS.

A telegram was received this morning from City Jailer Tom Evitts, stating that Patrol Driver John Austin was better, and asking that $25 be sent to him, Jailer Evitts, at Vicksburg.

This was good news to Chief Collins, and it is believed about the police station that Jailer Evitts intends to bring Mr. Austin back to Paducah at once.

Nothing would please the small boy more than the privilege of assuming the role of father to the man occasionally.

THE REVIVAL

THE CROWDS SEEM TO GROW
LARGER EVERY DAY.

Yesterday afternoon the revival meetings at the Broadway Methodist church reached a high state of practical helpfulness. No evangelist who has visited Paducah in recent years has commended his methods to the intelligent Christian, in a more effective manner than Mr. Holcomb.

He gave a Bible reading with comments from Colossians 3: The true Christian is one who has "Died With Christ, Buried With Christ, and Risen With Christ." A spiritual death, burial, and resurrection; hence, "If Ye Then Be Risen With Christ Seek Those Things Which are Above" not below the world is below, and the things that the world loves and delights in, are below; and should be below the Christian; "Set Your Affections on Things Which are Above" for where your heart is there will your life be "For Out of It, (the heart) are the issues of Life."

The Christian is dead to sin, to the world, and to self; and death is separation from that which sustains life: "Mortify therefore, Your Members Which are Upon the Earth" and in addition, there must be a "putting off" and a "putting on" until there is a complete change of heart and life. Then, and then only, can there be a life which will rebuke sin, and invite sinners to a Savior, who really saves.

The evening service brought out the largest audience of the meeting. Mr. McKenzie sang a very impressive solo, describing the imprisonment of Paul and Silas; after which Mr. Holcomb took his text, Romans 12: 1-2. "I Beseech You, Brethren, by the Mercy of God, That Ye Present Your Bodies a Living Sacrifice, Holy, Acceptable Unto God, Which is Your Reasonable Service, and be not Conformed to This World, but, be Ye Transformed by the Renewing of Your Mind, That Ye may Prove What is That good, Acceptable, and Perfect Will of God."

BOY WAS RELEASED.

Will Mockbee, colored, was arrested last night on complaint of his mother, who charged him with housebreaking. He is alleged to have gone to his mother's home, where he had not been staying, and taken away some clothing. The officers this morning released him, as there was no charge against him.

NOT MUCH BETTER

COLONEL FENTON SIMS IS STILL IN A DANGEROUS CONDITION.

Colonel Fenton Sims, who had a paralytic stroke is no better.

Colonel Sims was attacked Thursday afternoon in the court house while closing the argument for the defense in the Willis murder trial at Cadiz.

Mrs. Sims and daughter, Mrs. H. B. McKinney, were absent from home on a visit to friends in Des Moines, Iowa. Mrs. Sims had started home, and reached the city Friday at noon. Mrs. McKinney was wired for and reached home Sunday. Mr. McKinney, who is traveling in Indiana, was reached by wire early Saturday morning at Cairo, and arrived in the city Saturday night.

Colonel Sims never lost consciousness. He was reported as a little better yesterday, but his condition is regarded as critical, and the end cannot be foretold by his physician.

Colonel Sims is about 6 years old, and has served several terms in both houses of the Kentucky legislature.

ARE YOU GOING TO THE FAIR?

If you wear a Weille Overcoat, Suit, Hat and Shoes you can rest assured you are garbed correctly for the trip, and will be comfortable, up-to-date.

New Styles in Clothing

Some Extremely Handsome Effects

We want you to see our lines before you get your Fall suit, as we believe we have the handsomest ready-made clothing to be found anywhere. We know clothing—every thread of it—and know who makes the best and we handle only the products of those manufacturers. The Fall styles are very handsome and have about attained perfection in ready to wear clothing. This season the browns predominate and never was anything handsomer. The double breasted coat will be worn much, but come let us show you the new styles. It is better than talking of them. We have suits for every purse—Men's suits from $7.50 up.

New Things in Hats

Dunlaps, Youngs, Hawes Stetsons in Late Colors

Here too "brown's in town." The brown hats will be seen every where this fall and winter, and if you have a brown suit or overcoat you should have a brown hat. If not, they are very nobby with any pattern of coat or suit. Young, Stetson and Hawes made most of our brown hats. Then we have Dunlaps, Youngs, Stetsons, Hawes in the regular colors—any one a crowning work in head dress for men and boys. Caps, as usual, are big sellers this year and we have a big line in all the very latest things in styles, colors, etc.

New Style Overcoats

Some Swell, Nobby Things Are Here

Right here is where we hope we strike you. You will be sorry if you don't need an overcoat this year that you don't, for never before were the styles so swaggar. The rain coat will again be worn a great deal, being a garment serviceable at all times as well as very stylish, but the Sur-tout, the Paddock, the Tourist—every one is a very stylish garment and it is hard indeed to decide which a man wants. We are showing all these styles in several different makes and in the very swellest fabrics, browns, neat, dark effects, black and mixed designs, and they run from $7.50 to $25. You won't when you see them. Come in.

For the Boys

We are certainly fixed for the young fellows this season. A Boy's clothing should receive as much attention as a man's. We give it to ours, and as a result have the biggest following among the youngsters and their parents in Paducah. We want the mothers, and the boys, to come in and see what we are showing for boys this year. As usual the best the market affords. "Buster Brown" clothing is the sensation of the clothing world, and we have the line in its entirety. Then, too, a host of others. But come see. It is a pleasure to show you.

Let Us Show You the New Shirts

It is time to think of your Fall Shirts and time to select them now while our lines are replete with all the new things in mens shirts. We have a great big host of the best things the Manhattan and Emery factories turned out this year. Also the Monarch and many other famous shirt makers. We are showing the stiff bosoms, the winter negligee, in coat shirts as well as old styles, attached or detached cuffs, in whites and the new color schemes of the shirt designers. Needless to say they are pretty. The prices are right. $1 buys a good shirt but we have them up to $2.50.

We Want to Show You Our New Store

We will, in a very few days now, show you our new store. We are very proud of it, as we believe in it we have the handsomest and best appointed retail establishment in West Kentucky. It is the Weille policy to have everything the best and we will submit our claims to having the best store to you in a short time. But we don't end there. A handsome store should be handsomely stocked, and we believe ours is. From every quarter we have assembled the best works of the best manufacturers of America and the foreign countries and submit them to your inspection. Deeds speak louder than words, so come and see what we have done. See if anywhere in Paducah you will find a greater exposition of Men's, Youths' and Children's garments in every line than we are showing here.

The Right Sort of Shoes

"The frost is on the pumpkin"—or will be soon—and it will nip all Summer Shoes. Let us show you the new styles in footwear. We have them in every line from full dress shoes to the heavy, storm shoe for winter. Prices are right, too.

Swell Things in Vests

What man does not like the fancy vest? What adds more to a man's appearance than a handsome one? Much of the haberdasher's time is spent in designing new effects in fancy vests and it is profitably spent. Our new line, just in, contains the handsomest patterns in fancy vests we have ever shown, or seen. Double-breasted and single, fancy colors, neat patterns—all the best thought of the leading makers of the country. They are rightly priced, and pleasure bringers.

SOME FACTS ABOUT THE SCALES.

There is quite a difference in the receipts from the city scales this year and last.

The records in the city auditor's office show the following difference:

1903.	1904.
$110.....January.....$ 54.75
59.85.....February.....79.45
90.95.....March.....62.40
80.25.....April.....47.95
41.25.....May.....35.95
45.10.....June.....48.40
73.05.....July.....53.45
65.45.....August.....70.00
106.25.....September.....21.75
	to 22d
$731.15	$473.75

Leaving off the $21.75 receipts for the present month already reported, there remain $452 as receipts for the year 1904 to September 1, while the salary to that time has been $480. It is thus seen that the city scales are not even paying the salary of the weighmaster this year, while last year the scales yielded the city a clear profit of $384.05. There must be some reason for this other than the "persecution" that the administration claims is responsible for the complaints made against the city weigher.

AFTER BACK TAXES.

The city has decided to do its duty and bring suit against the people who have failed to pay back taxes. The city solicitor has been instructed to bring suit against every person who owes taxes on real estate, and some time after he gets back from his thirty days' leave of absence he will give the people thirty days in which to pay the taxes, and then if they do not comply, file suit against them.

In the course of time these suits will come up in court, and if not continued may possibly be tried and disposed of and those not carried to the court of appeals terminated by the sale of property. In a few years the city may realize something out of the sale of the property. It is estimated that $5,000 or $6,000 is due the city for back taxes, but no attention has been paid to it, because that is the administration's way of doing things. For fear the city solicitor, who is not the subject of our remarks, will take offense, we say in justice to him that he has never before been ordered to bring these suits, or he would have brought them. It is not his fault, but the fault of his superiors in office.

There is one thing to be said in mitigation of the tax-dodger, however. No person can be blamed for not paying taxes in a graft-ridden city like Paducah, if he can help it. No man can be censured very sharply for trying to keep from contributing to an administration that brazenly gives away $1,250 of the people's money.

President Ed. Hannan, of the board of councilmen, should wait until after November to decide the question of his eligibility to the council if holding the position of superintendent of the steam heating company. Councilman Hannan is far above the average councilman and is a nice fellow, but he is one of those who drew short terms, and has to run again this fall. We fear that Mr. Hannan will be among those who "also ran," for while he may be all right himself, he is in the predicament of Old Dog Tray—in bad company, and will have to be shelved with the other democratic nominees.

The telephone company it still indebted to the city $1,250. It agreed in its compromise to pay to the city $3,000, and has paid the city but $1,750, as its receipt shows. It will not be entitled to the concessions named in the compromise until it has complied with its part. The way to pay money to the city is to pay it into the treasury. The mayor and all the other officials know this, or if they don't, let them ask the city solicitor. After the money has been paid into the treasury, the general council can do whatever it sees fit. At least that is the way the general council in Paducah is in the habit of doing.

Pension Commissioner Ware in a signed statement has given the "Parker Constitution Club" a skinning that is close to cruelty to animals. He starts out with, "All democrats are constitutional lawyers and occupy the same relation to the republican party that mosquitoes do to a fisherman," and proves that every attack on President Roosevelt relative to the pension department is unfounded, and unjustified by facts.

The democrats seem to derive sweet solace from the thought that the populists will not vote the republican ticket. As the populists have been voting the democratic ticket, and are not going to do it this time, the republicans seem to have more cause to rejoice than the democrats.

The board of works got back at the council. It claims that the council can go ahead with its botch market-house by itself. The board of works will not be roped into being made responsible for something it tried to prevent.

The News-Democrat says Mayor Yeiser will appoint the sponsor for the launching of the gunboat Paducah, and then depart for Oak Grove or the Starr farm. This is probably a mistake. He will depart first.

NOT SURPRISED

AUDITOR'S AGENT LUCAS SAYS HE EXPECTED TO WIN.

Mr. Frank Lucas, the well-known attorney, returned from Owensboro, Ky., last night, where he had been on business.

Mr. Lucas states that the decision of the circuit court in Franklin county, in which he won over State Auditor Hager, was not a surprise to him. "I thought all along," he stated, in an interview with a Sun reporter this morning, "that I would win out in the end. It devolves upon Attorney James Campbell, Jr., to carry the case further and he has stated that he will appeal it to the appellate court of the state. I have no doubt that I will win there."

"Auditor Hager attempted to remove me shortly after his election to his office and singled me out to make a test case. He appointed in this district Attorney James Campbell, Jr., as auditor's agent and, while I have experienced some difficulties in my state practice relative to this office, I have felt all along that I would win out in the end."

Mr. Lucas is a young and ambitious attorney and deserves credit for his first success against the state auditor. Attorney Lucas and Attorney L. K. Taylor, the former's law partner, will argue the case in the appellate court when it comes to trial.

ABOUT A FOURTH

HAVE GIVEN IN THEIR LISTS TO THE ASSESSOR.

City Assessor Stewart Dick is receiving many assessments and stated this morning that one fourth of the property owners had come up and given in their assessments.

Mr. Dick has until October 1st to finish his work and expects a great rush within the next week.

BOTH LOCAL BOARDS
MET LAST NIGHT

Market House Contract Was Fully Ratified.

The City Becomes a Party to the $1,250 Skin Game.

OTHER BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS

A called meeting of the councilmanic board and the regular meeting of the board of aldermen were held last night at which the contract with Mr. George Katterjohn to build the new market house for $20,000 was ratified by both boards.

The council met first, with Mr. George Ingram in the chair, in the absence of President Ed. Hannan. Mayor Yeiser read the contract, and the $10,000 bond for the new market house, and both were ratified. The work is to begin October 1st.

It was ordered that an ordinance be brought in requiring awnings to be at least eight feet above the sidewalks. This ordinance will be passed because the city does not want to enforce the present ordinance making nine feet the limit.

The board ordered City Treasurer Dorian to accept from Attorney Campbell Flournoy $1,750 of the $3,000 paid as a compromise by the telephone company the other $1,250 being given him as a fee.

The board then adjourned.

THE ALDERMEN.

The board of aldermen met with President Reed in the chair.

The board reconsidered its former action, and allowed $100 to Solicitor Puryear with which to pay office rent.

The aldermen ratified the market house contract, and also the council's action ordering the city treasurer to accept $1,750 from Attorney Campbell Flournoy in lieu of the $3,000 it formerly ordered the treasurer to collect from the telephone company.

The board wanted the board of works to take charge of the market house now, but President Noble was present and refused to have anything to do with it.

The certified check deposited by Contractor Karnes when he bid on the city hospital was ordered returned.

The notice of undertakers that they would bury paupers hereafter for not less than $10 was turned over to the finance committee.

Milk and Meat Inspector Warner submitted a report of the milk sold in Paducah, and gives a list showing the test each dairyman's milk showed.

It was ordered published monthly for the benefit of the people.

R. H. Noble and Frank Boone were accepted as sureties on Auditor Kirkland's bond.

City Solicitor Puryear was ordered to bring suit against every person who owes back taxes.

Mayor Yeiser reported the notice he received from the navy department relative to the launching of the gunboat Paducah, and said he would appoint a sponsor next week.

The board of public works has given authority to use its own judgment in buying a new street roller. A proposition was submitted from the Kelly Springfield Road Roller company to accept the old roller for $1,550, and take $1,750 in cash for a new 20,000 pound roller.

The mayor was ordered to borrow money for fire department expenses.

The $2,000 due Contractor E. C. Terrell was ordered paid.

The following ordinances were passed: first passage: Providing for reconstruction of Second street, for storm water sewerage, sidewalks and gutters and the removal of overhead wires, and for new gas, water and other pipes to buildings.

the street railway company were given first passage.

The board ratified the transfer of the following saloon licenses: P. B. Finley, of 737 North Eighth street to E. W. Berry; E. W. Berry, of 12th and Madison to C. H. Spencer; J. Ginger, of 918 South Eighth, to Frank Hardesty.

The council's action relative to an ordinance for awnings eight feet from the sidewalk was ratified.

Record was made of the "whitewash" of City Weigher Hesselton by the board of aldermen Tuesday last.

Messrs. L. S. DuBois and George Kolb were accepted as bondsmen for C. G. Warner, milk and meat inspector.

The board refused to concur in the council's action ordering street lights burned every night, instead of only on nights when there was no moon.

The board of police commissioners was ordered to have the automobile ordinance enforced.

The matters of repairing Myers and Washington streets, and preventing the ice company from running water down the levee, were referred to the board of works.

The board turned down the request of the street car company for permission to have a shed at Fourth and Broadway as a transfer house. There is an ordinance which prohibits the obstruction of the streets or sidewalks with such a house.

An ordinance was ordered for the improvement of Tennessee street from 12th to 13th, also an alley from 10th and 12th.

The matter of installing additional fire alarm boxes was at the suggestion of the mayor referred to the fire committee.

A petition asking for the repair of a fill from Jackson street to Plunkett Hill was referred to the board of public works.

It was ordered that a board of nine be appointed to name the city hospital.

This committee is to be composed of the mayor, two board presidents, chairmen of the two hospital committees and four physicians, two of the latter to be selected by the president of the board of aldermen and the remaining two by the president of the lower board.

$1,250 STILL OWED
BY TELEPHONE CO

Council Last Night Tried to Make $1,750 Equal to $3,000.

City Treasurer Refuses to Give Receipt For Anything Except What Was Paid.

COMPROMISE NOT YET SETTLED

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 30, 1903.
Mr. W. P. Hummel, City.

Dear Sir:—In response to your letter of Oct. 29th, asking me if in my opinion the city can collect a license tax from telegraph companies for the future as well as the past, and whether or not I would be willing to undertake the collection of such tax, I will say, that on examination of the ordinance of the city, I find that subsection 22 of ordinance No. 29, entitled "Licenses," of the revised ordinances of the city of Paducah, adopted May 20th, 1895, provides that the telegraph companies shall pay the sum of $1 per annum for use of the streets, alleys and public places of the city of Paducah, for each pole used by the telegraph companies in the streets, alleys and public places of the city. I have heretofore made a close and careful investigation of the legality of this ordinance, and have no hesitation in stating that I consider the same valid and enforceable.

Our firm will be willing to undertake the collection of all the rentals due from the telegraph companies of the city on the basis of a fee equal to 50 per cent. of what we can recover. In case we should be defeated in attempting to recover, we would agree to make no charge against the city for our services. We think that rentals from 1895 can be collected except where same may be barred by limitation, and this, we think, would effect a very small proportion of the sum due, if it applied at all. Yours very truly,
(Signed.) J. C. FLURNOY.

The above is the "contract" on which a Paducah attorney was last night paid a $1,250 fee by the city. The document is plain. It is in the form of a proposition made the city and the records show that it was ratified by the general council and while it primarily applied only to the telegraph companies, was later extended to the telephone companies.

The document clearly authorized the law firm to take up with the companies, only the matter of rent or tax on the poles each owns in the city. Fifty per cent. of whatever was collected for pole rent was to be given as a fee to the attorneys. There is no record that a dollar has ever been collected for pole rent. Instead of collecting the rent on poles, a compromise was brought in recently releasing one of the telephone companies from all claims of whatever character, held against it by the city except for ad valorem tax, in consideration for the payment of $3,000 and the purchase of a franchise, etc. This compromise was finally made by the city with the telephone company, and bore no relation whatever to the contract made regarding the pole rent. The city agreed to pay no part of it to anyone, and to give $1,250 of it to anyone as a fee was an outrage on the city and taxpayers.

It may be true that this compromise, while made solely by the city with the telephone company, was the result of the efforts of this outside attorney, but the city was not seeking a compromise or expecting one, and if it had desired one it doubtless would have instructed the city solicitor to negotiate for it. All the work done to effect the compromise by an outside attorney was without authority, and it is safe to assume from the manner in which the affair was conducted, that it was not the city's interests he had in view when he hatched out the compromise.

It was claimed that the amount due from the telephone company was about $7,000. The city now has to give the telephone company receipts for the city license on half a dozen or more wagons, on its poles, for franchise tax, for city license, and in fact for every claim that the city can raise against the company except ad valorem tax; must dismiss all suits it has against it, and put up a franchise for sale—all for the sum of $1,750, when the original claims amounted to $7,000.

The mayor and general council were parties to the whole transaction, whatever it may properly be called. They have given away from the city funds $1,250 for working a skin-game.

The action of the council last night was nothing but a play into the hands of those who favored the graft. Monday night it met and ordered the city treasurer to collect $3,000 from the telephone company. Last night it met again, and threw the whole thing over the fence, ordering the treasurer to collect only $1,750.

The proceeding is clearly illegal. The compromise with the telephone company will not have been consummated until the telephone company pays to the city $3,000, and the council cannot now try to make $1,750 equal $3,000.

This morning Attorney Flournoy paid into the treasury $1,750 and wanted a "receipt in full" for what the telephone company owed the city.

City Treasurer Dorian declined to give anything but a receipt for $1,750, and stated that he would not give a "receipt in full" if every city official in Paducah ordered it. He is of the opinion that the telephone company owes the city $1,250 more on the compromise, which seems to be the case. He gave a receipt for what he received—$1,750. The telephone company now has nothing but a receipt for $1,750, while the compromise calls for $3,000.

It is now up to the city to demand from the telephone company a compliance with the compromise, which calls for $3,000 to be paid the city, and which has not been paid. The $3,000 it agreed to pay to the city remains unpaid, and will have to be paid before terms of the compromise are complied with, and the city's litigation against the company is dismissed, and claims against it for taxes, licenses, etc., are cancelled.

AN EXPLODED REPUTATION.
Methuselah is firmly believed to have lived 900 years, and this has been so often held up to his advantage, that it is high time the truth about Methuselah was known.

As a matter of fact, Methuselah was a mere boy when he died. At that age some of our kindergarten graduates could have given him more valuable pointers than were dreamed of in his philosophy.

This historical personage was born in a circus tent in the heart of the Ararat district. He learned all he knew in the first ten years of his life. All that followed after that was a repetition.

Methuselah never went to kindergarten, nor learned to cut automobiles out of red paper. He never attended dancing school, played golf or rode a wheel. He was a fairly good in horseback, but never attended a race in his life, and knew nothing of polo.

Methuselah had no world's fair to educate him and pass away the time. He did not grow nervous in Wall street at his lunch by putting a quarter in the slot, or go sixty miles an hour on an open road.

The length of a man's life is not measured by years, but by events.

Methuselah is a back number. In one year we live longer than he did in his whole life—Life.

When a so called vocalist murders a song it doesn't deaden the sound.

Low Coughs At first a high cough, all in your throat. You neglected it. Now it is down deep in your chest. That means a low cough, a lung cough. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral heals the torn membranes.

BIRTHS.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hart, of West Jefferson, a girl baby.

A London jeweler recently had a thermometer stolen from his shop and the next day he affixed the following notice to his door: "Will the misguided individual who took the thermometer without leave the other day please return the same? He has made a mistake. It can be of use to him in the place to which he is going, as it only registers 125 degrees of heat."

Theatrical Notes

Mr. Frank Dudley and his leading lady, Miss Aubrey, won new laurels last night. That old but ever welcome play, "Camille," was the bill, and the performance was really much better than many high price companies put up. Mr. Dudley is a real actor. No swashbuckling, ranting, or bellying for him. His style is entirely different from that of most repertoire actors, for his work is realistic—true to life.

Miss Aubrey probably did her best work of the week. The part of "Camille" calls for ability of a high order when played right, and the emotional scenes were well done. The supporting company was as on former nights, excellent—faultless. The settings were appropriate, and those who were present gave the principals encore after encore. This company can be recommended to the public as one in every way entitled to patronage, for it is the strongest of its kind ever seen here. Tonight the play will be "Dr. Jeckyll and Mr. Hyde."

Novelty is the keynote of "The Tenderfoot." The author has dared to raise his curtain on a stage tenanted only by a Chinaman. Presently, a troop of Texas rangers comes galloping on in a dashing cavalry song. The rangers give way to a western gambler, an authoress from the east and a prairie wail, and then are introduced all the picturesque characters that the dividing line of Texas and Mexico affords.

Of the several song hits the principal one is "My Alamo Love" which popularized "The Tenderfoot" the country over long before it left Chicago.

"The Tenderfoot" is here for Tuesday night, September 27. Seats go on sale Monday at 10 a. m.

PRINCE OBJECTS.

German Nobleman Wants to Select His Wife Himself.

Berlin, Sept. 23.—There is probably in all the realms of the Kaiser no madder young man than the Crown Prince Wilhelm, who has now been scheduled for an early marriage by his father, whose orders he, in this case, dare not disobey.

While the official German press and most of the conservative papers now for more than two weeks have told their readers that the affair is a love match pure and simple, fellow officers and friends of the young prince are telling how he is now racking his brains for a plan to evade a marriage to a princess whom he considers his mental inferior.

ABILENA

Abilena is natural water. It holds in solution salts dissolved from natural deposits in the earth. It is Nature's cathartic compound—a natural mineral water. Mineral waters are recognized everywhere as the most efficient, as well as the least injurious, cathartics. Abilena is the best mineral water on the American market. It is The American Natural Cathartic. The discovery of Abilena was a simple revelation of nature. For a long time after the first well was dug, the water, being unfit for domestic purposes, was not used at all. Practical tests afterward disclosed its medicinal properties and the report of its virtue was rapidly disseminated. Finally several chemists analyzed the water and the results manifested its great therapeutic value and preindicated its future renown. Sold only by

BODY OF ENGINEER EDWARDS
ARRIVED AT NOON TODAY.

The body of Engineer William S.
Edwards, the Illinois Central engineer
killed at Templeton, Tenn., by a mail
crane, arrived on the train shortly after noon today from Fulton, and was buried at Oak Grove.

The Fulton Commercial gives the following account of the terrible accident which cost the former Paducah
engineer his job:

"It was when his train was approaching the flag station of Templeton
where a mail crane takes off the mail
pouches from the fast flying trains.
Just before arriving at the crane Engineer Edwards put his head out of the cab window of his engine to see if things were all right. His face was pointing slightly towards the ground
and he did not see the approaching nearness of the crane until the big iron hook caught him on the left side of the head an inch above the left eye
and tore off the entire top of his head,
sprouting blood and brains all over the cab and window facing and hurling
the bones of the head all over the tender full of coal.

"The engineer fell back against the cab window perfectly motionless and the train ran two or three miles past
the station, when the fireman, Jake Huddleston, noticed the inactivity of his chief and hurried for the other side to stop the engine."

The following party accompanied the remains to Paducah: Mrs. W. S.
Edwards, wife of the deceased; three children and niece, Miss Rebecca Edwards, of Jackson, Tenn.; Mrs. M. A.
Price, Mrs. A. C. Caldwell, Mrs. Ed
Walker, Mrs. E. Joiner, Miss Bate
Vance, Mrs. George Kirkland, Mrs.
Robert Cooper, Mrs. Thomas Mercer,
Mrs. Hayes Blair, Rev. Dodds, Mrs.
Rufus Reiley, Miss Birdie Wilson,
Mrs. S. Conn, Miss Maude Orontch-
field, Mrs. Emma Hill, Mrs. William Hackett, Mrs. James Burton, Mrs.
Ed Smith, Miss Stella Robinson,
Mrs. Harry Stuart.

The pall-bearers were James Morris,
W. H. Newhouse, R. M. Tilley, T.
A. Calder, Bates Van, Jake Huddles-ton, L. W. Halford.

SKIN DISEASES

Altoona, Pa., June 20, 1903.
I was afflicted with Tetter in bad shape
It would appear in blotches as large as my hand, a yellowish color, and scale off
You can imagine how offensive it was
For twelve years I was afflicted with this trouble. At night it was a case of scratch and many times no rest at all. Seeing the good the medicine was doing a friend who was taking it for Eczema, I commenced it, and as a result the eruption began to dry up and disappear, and to-day
I am practically a well man. Only two tiny spots are left on the elbow and shin,
where once the whole body was affected.
I have every confidence in the medicine,
and feel sure that in a short time these
two remaining spots will disappear.
S. S. S. is certainly a great blood purifier, and has done me a world of good.
I am grateful for what it has accomplished, and trust that what I have said
will lead others who are similarly afflicted to take the remedy and obtain the same good results that I have.

125 East Fifth Ave. JOHN F. LEAR.

While washes, soaps, salves and powders relieve temporarily, they do not reach the real cause of the disease. The blood must be purified before the cure is permanent.
S. S. S. contains no potash, arsenic or mineral of any description, but is guaranteed
purely vegetable. Send for our book on the skin and its diseases, which is mailed free. Our physicians will cheerfully advise
any who write us
about their case.

Attorney W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., Dr.

have been appointed a committee to arrange for the business men's class

The gentlemen will meet Saturday

fessional men taking a lively interest in the project and the class bids fair to be larger than any previously organized.

ENGINEER WALLACE ASSERTS RIGHTS

A Clash Between Him and Military Head.

The Engineer Won His Point and is Still at the Head of Everything.

STORY OF HOW HE DID IT

New York, Sept. 23.—J. Gabriel Du Que, editor of the Panama Star and Herald, who was a fellow passenger with John F. Wallace, chief engineer in charge of the work in the zone, on the steamer Advance just in from Colon, told of troubles between Gov. Davis and the heads of departments in the canal work.
Mr. Wallace who was formerly chief engineer for the L. C., would not see newspaper men. He went to the engineer's club and later left for Washington.

That there has been friction not only between Gov. Davis and Col. Gozas, chief sanitary officer, but also between
Gen. Davis and Engineer Wallace is apparent. The trouble grew to such an extent that the commission had to straighten matters and it is said that Mr. Wallace threatened to resign.

According to Editor Du Que, Gen. Davis wanted to be the "poo-bah" of the isthmus. This was resented. Mr. Wallace brought the matter to a head when he insisted that he be allowed to fill the office of engineer of the construction
without the aid of military head of the zone.

"There was no personal enmity," said
Mr. Du Que, "but they had a difference of opinion regarding the work."

"Gov. Davis wanted to be the whole thing—the head of the sanitary department and the engineer. This was not according to Mr. Wallace's plans and he would not stand it."

"I do not know if the president had to interfere, but an understanding was reached, and now so far as the actual engineering work of the canal is concerned, Mr. Wallace is supreme. Mr. Wallace, if Gov. Davis asks him to do anything in a civil capacity, must do it, but when it comes to a question of how the engineers will work and what men will be on that work, the engineer in charge
is to take orders from no one."

Mr. Wallace was to employ four or five district engineers at a salary of $10, 000. He had made his plans, so runs the story, but Gov. Davis said he would not pay the men that much. Shortly after this Gov. Davis was obliged to come north on account of the illness of Mrs.
Davis, who died at sea.

IN TIME

MR. WALLACE SAYS HE WILL FINISH THE CANAL.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, the well known contractor, returned this morning from Chicago, where he had been on business.

Mr. Katterjohn met Mr. J. F. Wallace, formally general manager of the Illinois Central, who had just returned from the Panama canal. Mr.
Wallace is chief engineer of the Panama canal construction company
and his visit to Chicago was received with much surprise and pleasure.
Mr. Wallace has a very great engineering feat to perform in building
the canal, but says that he will finish
within the required time.

Louisville, Ky., September 23.—

The next legislature will be asked to Lawrenceburg, formerly a member of the state senate, said yesterday afternoon that he is considering such a bill

and probably will ask some one to introduce it at the next session.

A NAME FOR THE NEW HOSPITAL

Now that the city has arranged for the building of a new hospital it is fitting that it be given a name suitable in every respect. In other cities

it has been the custom to name such institutions after some local man

whose life and work were identified with the profession. In this connection we suggest that the name for the new hospital be "The Reuben Sanders Hospital," in honor of the man whose life and work were spent in this city. Dr. Saunders was the first president of the Southwestern Kentucky Medical Association, and for fifty years one of the most noted physicians of the state. His reputation in this line is better known among the profession than at home. His name

has been and is now a household word,

and while he is dead, it is true, yet his works live after him, and the city

could do no better than honor this man's memory by naming the hospital

after Dr. Reuben Saunders.

A Bermuda Fisherman's Daughter

By Kate Upson Clark

Copyright, 1904, by Kate Upson Clark

It is common with many of his fellow islanders, Thomas Gilbert found himself before he was fifty years old stiffening with rheumatism. He had been brought up to gardening and still assisted in the care of the rectory's simple grounds, but most of the time he fished. Among the boats which drew up at the Hamilton wharf each night filled with rockfish, red and gray snappers, mullet, bream, smelt, herring, haddock, chub, amber fish or divinely colored angel fish none had used to be finer than Thomas Gilbert's. Now his boat was not so well filled, and the long sail batten to his home in Somersetshire. His son Digby, it had of sixteen, had preferred a place in a store to fishing with his father, though the store was as yet far less profitable to him. The finances of the Gilbert family felt the old man's disabilities, but Brenda looked upon Martin Mears with no more favor on this account.

Mrs. Gilbert had been taken from some charitable institution in London and brought to Bermuda in her childhood by the rectory's wife. At that time Thomas Gilbert took care of the rectory's horse and his gardens. The young people fell in love early, but they had been so happy in the rectory service that they had not married until they were past thirty.

There was an air of gentility about the small cottage of the Gilberts. It saved of the uncleanliness of the rectory. Brenda Gilbert felt it. She had been named by the rectory's wife and educated largely by her children. She was therefore better bred than most of those with whom she associated. More than that, there was not so beautiful a girl in all Bermuda as she. Brenda was a blond. That means as much in Bermuda as in Africa. Among the monotonously dark eyes and olive skins and jet black locks of her mates her flaxen tresses and brilliant blue eyes and dazling complexion made her seem like a veritable seraph.

Martin Mears was a pilot, a good enough fellow, and for a young Bermudian, he was rich. Brenda knew that he was rich for the love of her and was ready to marry her tomorrow, but he lacked the refinement to which she was accustomed. Then he was short and thickset and red faced, and in her soul, in spite of the many considerations which her father and mother urged upon her in his favor, Brenda hated him.

It is computed that there are only about twenty square miles of territory in all Bermuda. It is not strange, therefore, that there are some men who know the faces of all the white inhabitants. The others, though nearly twice as many, count little to a Bermudian. Thomas Gilbert's beautiful daughter was naturally somewhat famous throughout the islands. Her mother would not allow her to go with the soldiers and sailors, which is powerful there and takes on a pettiness of detail commensurate with its geographical scope, forbade the young men of the local gentry to associate on terms of equality with a fisherman's daughter. Yet there was one of them who fell in love with her, and he cared nothing for wagging tongues nor for the comments of his proud mother and sisters.

To do John Masters justice he loved the girl's fine look of comeliness and her goodness and gentleness as much as her beauty. Mrs. Gilbert knew that he had taken Brenda to some of the picnics and that he had walked home with her from church, but she knew, too, that he was poor. To be sure, he was the second son in a good family. His mother was an English officer's widow and an English gentleman's daughter and lived in a pleasant mansion in Warwick. But their income was small for the expenses which they were obliged to meet and the young man could not hope to marry for years to come, while here was Martin Mears, ready to wed the girl at once and put her and the rest of them beyond the reach of want. It was true that John Masters was handsome and polished and had all those high bred ways which count for so much with girls like Brenda, who had a nice little hauteur of her own, but Mrs. Gilbert revolted against the distaste which she knew the Masters family would feel for the match, and why wouldn't Brenda take Martin Mears?

One day the mother came upon her daughter crying among the lemon trees in the garden. "What is it?" she asked, sitting down beside the girl and taking her head in her motherly lap. "He—he's going away!" sobbed the heartbroken beauty.

"Who—Martin?" "No, John Masters." "Oh, that's nothing. He is of no account to you. I suppose he is going off to seek his fortune. He had better. They say he hasn't got a cent. Her money all goes to take care of them—four boys and four girls make a big family. He's good looking and all that, but you mustn't care about him. Brenda, and I've said so before. They wouldn't like it, and I could see that the rectory's lady thought it wasn't suitable. Remember that you are in the station in which Providence has been pleased to place you. Why can't you oblige your father and mother and take Martin?"

"Mother," said Brenda resolutely, "you might as well know that I never shall marry anybody but John Masters. We are engaged, and just as soon as he gets settled in New York we shall be married. I know you don't want me to go out to service, but Digby is doing pretty well, and father's rheumatism is better, and maybe I can help a little up at the hall, and so we can manage even if I am not married for two or three years. Oh, I love him so, mother! You can't imagine how I love him! And he is going away!"

The mother could stand it no longer. She tossed Brenda's fair head away from her as if it had been a worthless sweet potato and marched into the house, mimicking her lovesick daughter's tone as she did so.

The day came when John Masters was to sail. The engagement was to be kept perfectly quiet for the present. In order to that Martin Mears was to be allowed to come to the Gilbert cottage occasionally, but Brenda had declared that she should never say one word to any young man to amuse or entertain him. Her lover should never have the slightest cause for jealousy. As he walked off down the cedar avenue, tall, straight, dignified, she thought he was the handsomest and truest man in the world, and she was sure that none had ever loved anybody as he loved her. He had promised to write at once upon reaching America and to tell her then how to address him. Brenda waited eagerly for the letter.

The next steamer did not get in until a fortnight later. It arrived on a Sunday, and the mails were opened on Monday. Brenda could not get away in the morning. She thought it was not likely that she could receive the mail if she did, for such matters move slowly in the islands. In the afternoon she went; there was nothing for her. But that was not very strange, she reflected. She really ought not to expect anything before another steamer.

But that brought nothing and neither did the next. Brenda began to look pale and wretched. Six months passed. Still she had received no letter. All of this time Martin Mears was faithful, but not obtrusively so. When the West India boats came in, pomegranates and pomegranates found their way humbly to Brenda from him. He brought his new horse up to show her. Horses are rare and expensive in Bermuda—but Martin was flourishing and gave her to understand that he did not mind a little thing like that.

When the year had rolled around again and still there had been no word for her from John Masters, Brenda was sitting under a great Pride of India tree near her home one evening when Martin came strolling up. She was in a soft and tender mood, and his deference and devotion seemed grateful to her. He talked on quietly. Then he grew more earnest. "Oh, Brenda!" he pleaded, his face working with the passion which he had kept in leash so many months. "I've waited so long and loved you so all the time! I know about that young Masters—but, Brenda, he never meant anything. He's all right, over there in America—you can go up and ask his folks on the hill there if he isn't—but he isn't troubling himself about you. And I am waiting for you. You will never hear from him again. Probably he is courting another girl this very minute!"

The members of the general council had the unspeakable gall, after taking the market house matter out of the hands of the board of public works, to want to turn the job over to the board of public works to worry over, after they had done all they were after—let the contract. The board of works flatly refused to have anything to do with it. The members claim that the general council, without the slightest justification, butchered the plans which the board of works had worked so hard and faithfully to get up, took the whole matter of letting the contract into its own hands, and now must take the consequences. The building of the new market house will accordingly be under the supervision of the public improvement committee of the general council.

NEW STEAM ROLLER WILL BE BOUGHT

Board of Works Says a Roller Saves Much Money.

Another Step Taken Towards Building Market House—Broadway Storm Water Sewerage.

OTHER MUNICIPAL NOTES

The board of public works, as soon as it receives the proper authority will get a new steam roller. The board of aldermen last night acted favorably on it, and the council will next consider it. The present roller has been ill-used and costs too much to run. A few years ago it was almost burned up, and has been neglected so long that it costs much more to run it than is necessary.

A member of the board stated today: "We can make a roller pay for itself before the first of the year. For instance we had Kentucky avenue repaired some time ago without using the roller, and it cost us about $30 a block. When we put the roller into service we repaired Ninth street, and it cost us $7, and the street is better than Kentucky avenue, that cost us $30 a block, showing the difference in using a roller and not using one."

Contractor Charles Robertson expects to complete the storm water sewerage on Broadway tomorrow, and will remove the dirt and other obstructions as rapidly as possible. He will finish several days ahead of time, and will get $10 a day for it.

The dirt that will be taken from Second street when market house excavations are made will be used to repair and strengthen the fill on South Fourth street above Norton. The contractor in this contract will be given a bonus as in the Broadway storm water sewerage, of $10 a day for every day he completes it before January 1st.

No one can tell when work will begin on the new market house, as things are mighty uncertain under the present administration.

The contract with Mr. George Katterjohn has now been ratified by the general council, and he is ready to go to work, but he will have to wait awhile.

The city must before work begins advertise for bids for the old market house, which has to be torn down. If these bids, which are to be opened Monday, are satisfactory, the contract will be let. When the person who gets the contract signs up everything, he will begin work. How long this will be, depends on the weather. If the weather is good and the person who gets the contract is made to get a move on himself, the old market house will be torn down and carted out of the way in the course of time, and digging will begin for the foundation of the new building.

The city will also in the meantime have to get a temporary market house, and if everything passes off smoothly, it is possible that the place may be secured and properly fitted up some time within the next few weeks, or before Christmas.

The city could have had these things ready, and work could have begun today on the new market house if it did things that way, but it does not.

The contract for carting the old market house away could have been made weeks ago, and the temporary market house rented and all ready to use, but as everything is put off in Paducah, it was not.

The members of the general council had the unspeakable gall, after taking the market house matter out of the hands of the board of public works, to want to turn the job over to the board of public works to worry over, after they had done all they were after—let the contract. The board of works flatly refused to have anything to do with it. The members claim that the general council, without the slightest justification, butchered the plans which the board of works had worked so hard and faithfully to get up, took the whole matter of letting the contract into its own hands, and now must take the consequences. The building of the new market house will accordingly be under the supervision of the public improvement committee of the general council.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

NO STAMPS NEEDED

THIRD AND FOURTH CLASS MAIL WILL HEREAFTER GO IN BULK.

Washington, September 23.—No stamps needed on third and fourth class mail matter. This order will be issued by the Postoffice Department within the next few weeks. It will be stipulated, however, that every piece of mail must be identical in character, and in quantities of not less than 2,000 pieces.

These regulations are made in the interest of the large business houses of the country, from which thousands of pieces of mail are sent out weekly. Under the present postal laws each piece of advertising matter must have a 1 cent stamp affixed. It requires the services of a large force of clerks to do the work, as is also true at the postoffices from which the advertising matter is to be dispatched, as each stamp must be cancelled before it is ready for distribution.

Under the plan now proposed by the Postoffice Department it will not be necessary to stamp the circulars, not to cancel stamps. A representative of the business houses will call upon the postmaster and say he has

ACTION IS SUSPENDED.
The creditors in the bankrupt case of J. W. Sellers have filed a petition in Referee Bagby's court asking that action in the federal bankrupt court be suspended until the matter of several debts is decided in the state court. Referee Bagby stated this morning that he had suspended action until the trustee could file suit in the circuit court and this morning Cecil Reed filed a suit against J. E. It is a rare thing that a famous man's posterity is able to hold up the prestige of the original head. Such indeed is the great grand son of "Old John Adams" of Massachusetts, second president of the United States, in the person of his great grand son Charles Francis Adams. Read his great speech in volume 5 of the Famous Statesmen and Orators. The Sun's great offer.

KENTUCKY NEWS TOLD IN PARAGRAPHS

INDICTED FOR MURDER.
Cadiz, Ky., September 23.—W. Pat Gray, who killed Charles T. Russell at Golden Pond on the 10th of September by striking him with his fist, has been indicted for wilful murder.

LONG LITIGATION ENDS.
Owensboro, Ky., September 23.—The legal battle which has been in progress between the city of Owensboro and the Owensboro Water Works Company for several years is practically at an end. The contest has been one of the bitterest ever waged in the local courts. Both sides, represented by skilled counsel, exerted every effort for supremacy. Step by step the water company won points in the courts and only recently Special Judge Sanders rendered a judgment in favor of the company in one of the many suits. It was then that upon the advice of City Attorney C. S. Walker the city began to effect a settlement of an amicable nature with the water company. Only one law suit now remains, that to settle the right of the city in fixing the water rates.

EDWARDS WINS.
Somerset, Ky., September 23.—D. C. Edwards, of Laurel county, was given the Republican nomination for congress in the Eleventh district over Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter, the present congressman, by 816 majority, by the Republican Congressional District committee which met here yesterday pursuant to a mandamus order to make a recount of the vote. The vote of Letcher and Bell counties was thrown out. At a previous meeting of the committee Dr. Hunter was declared the nominee.

KILLED WHILE HUNTING.
Cadiz, Ky., September 23.—Alf Baker, colored, living five miles east of Linton, shot himself accidentally while hunting from which he died a few hours after. Baker was in the woods, and started to set his gun over a big log. The hammer struck the log and the gun was discharged, the entire load taking effect in his bowels and stomach.

KILLING AT PRINCETON.
Princeton, Ky., September 23.—Frank Nichols, a peaceable negro, was called out into his yard, about one hundred yards from the Black Sulphur school house on W. B. George's farm, and shot down. A knock on the door attracted his attention and when he opened it no one was to be seen. After closing the door a rock was thrown against the house and he went out, going as far as his pig pen, about one hundred and fifty feet from the house, and turning around to go back was shot down from behind a tree which he had passed. The wife did not give the alarm until morning, being afraid to go out. Sheriff Jones arrested Bob Asher, colored, as he was boarding the train for Cairo, Ill.

There had been trouble between them and threats made. Asher was seen to go towards the house just before the murder.
